

PERFORMER BIOGRAPHY

Melanie Mastrototaro

Melanie Mastrototaro was born in Yorkshire and took formal singing lessons with Barbara Senior, going onto study BA(hons) in Music at Hull University. She achieved her ATCL, AmusTCL and LTCL(with distinction) in singing and grade 8 piano. She has sung on stages throughout England in Opera, Oratorio and Musical Theatre genres.

Melanie moved to the South in 2013 and lives with her husband, two daughters and a flock of chickens! She teaches singing, beginners piano and music theory from her studio at home and has found a passion in helping people achieve their musical potential. Melanie also sings with the a cappella group, Queen Bees, and enjoys running, cooking and family holidays.
