

PERFORMER BIOGRAPHY

Abby Bamber-Brown

Abby lives in Sparsholt village where she attended the primary school before moving onto Kings and then Barton Peveril.

Abby developed a passion for Musical Theatre from an early age after joining Stagecoach Winchester for a production of Beauty and the Beast when she was eight years old. Since then Abby has enjoyed performing in many productions including, most recently, Made in Dagenham, The Hunchback of Notre Dame, and a starring role as Fantine in Les Misérables at The Point in Eastleigh.

Having studied Musical Theatre for two of her A-levels, alongside Politics, and achieving a Grade 8 in Musical Theatre with the London College of Music, Abby is now looking forward to starting her university course at Emil Dale Academy of Performing Arts in September. She will be undertaking a foundation course before embarking on an honours degree in Musical Theatre, after which she hopes to follow her dream career to a performing role in the West End.

Abby was delighted to join the Sparsholt Music group earlier this year and is looking forward to singing in future concerts when she is home from university.

S P A R S H O L T
• M U S I C •